Eastville, Midville and New Leake Parish Council

Chair's Allowance

In accordance with Section 15(5) of the Local Government Act 1972, Eastville, Midville and New Leake Parish Council may pay an allowance to the Chair to enable the proper discharge of the duties of the office.

This allowance is intended solely to defray expenses arising from official parish business. The framework for parish members' allowances is further set out in the Local Authorities (Members' Allowances) (England) Regulations 2003, which permit parish councils to allocate a Chair's allowance and require that any such payments are administered transparently and in line with statutory guidance.

Eastville, Midville and New Leake Parish Council allocates a modest annual allowance to the Chair, which is reimbursed only upon submission of valid receipts for expenses incurred while undertaking official duties. For the financial year 2027–2028, the amount allocated was £500.

All expenditure must be supported by a valid receipt and may only be authorised by resolution at a full Council meeting.
